THE PROPERTY

Opportunity

The Chadwell Arms traded as a community focused public house, capturing customers from Chadwell St Mary. The modern, purpose-built building provides flexibility to any incoming operator wishing to establish a new business venture that serves the surrounding area. The premises is available freehold with vacant possession.

Location

The property is located on a large rectangular plot and is bounded on three sides by Longhouse Road to the west, Ingleby Road to the north and Tasker Road to the east. The building is positioned to the east of the site, with the balance comprising car parking, a service yard and trade garden areas.

Chadwell St Mary is situated east of Dock Approach Road, and south of the A13 Stanford Le Hope Bypass near Junction 30 of the M25. Both Tilbury and Grays are nearby.

Arrangement

The ground floor has two main trade spaces; a front bar with a side pool/games room and a large "L" shaped rear bar with a stage. Both areas have their own serveries and WC facilities. A large commercial kitchen, stores, above ground cellarage and office provide the necessary back of house functions.

The first floor has a number of bedrooms, a living room, kitchen and bathroom. It can be accessed internally, and via an external staircase at the rear of the building

The customer car parking area benefits from two accesses. A service yard and garage/storage building is also present. The trade garden areas wrap around the front of the building and overlook Longhouse Road and Ingleby Road.
